

CAROL COETZER

I love painting and expressing myself on canvas. I have travelled to many countries in the world and have been able to record many of the interesting things that I have seen. I try to express my experiences with art.

My artwork style varies from oil, acrylic or watercolour work. I paint landscapes, flowers and very abstract pieces. I enjoy all the different styles and am constantly trying to improve.

Creating artwork is a very personal journey for me. It takes me to places that I have only previously had in my head and places that I have been to.

When I am deciding what to paint, I study things around me and get ideas and inspiration from my family and friends.

I express gratitude through my artwork in a number of different ways. When painting a landscape of the wonderful country that we are fortunate to live in, I think of the beautiful clean air, the sparkling waterways, the amazing vistas and try to capture some of these feelings in my work.
