

ALISON DUKE

I am a country girl at heart, living in the city. I am a Christian, artist, wife, mother of 6 who feels at home when exploring the heart of God and encouraging others to do the same.

I would describe my style as being traditional, but I also love exploring other styles.

What I enjoy most about creating artwork is the challenge of learning about myself, through experimentation of moving paint over the canvas and creating distinct colour. Sometimes having no plan at all, but asking the canvas what to do and waiting for the next thought that comes to mind.

Sometimes I decide what to paint, because it is a picture or scene that I have photographed and fell in love with. Sometimes I am challenged by a client asking for something they are not quite sure of and I am inspired and greatly indebted by what has come about as a result. I have a few paintings Called "The Heart Series" which is not yet completed and they have sprung up from inside me.

I am grateful for the minutes, hours I can spend exploring and being within a painting. As I paint I pray that what I share through it is my heart. I would like to have people feel a connection to a painting, which says "that's the one that is right for me". A touching of my heart to theirs something which would say I am so grateful to be alive and you can be too.

You can see more of Alison's artwork at:

dukealisonart@blogspot.com.au

