

ALAN LOUIS RAMACHANDRAN

I am a Singaporean who came to this wonderful country in March 2007.

The brilliant colours of the sunset and landscape changes thru the seasons giving me new inspirations .

Art is my passion and gives me the chance to express my feelings and emotions while I paint.

“Impressionistic “ is how I describe my style of painting and I use watercolours to express my passion.

I appreciate perceiving nature and capturing street scenes, and try to capture the “ light “ and atmosphere in my paintings.

‘Gratitude’ is expressed through my artwork to enjoy mother nature in all its glory.

I am captivated by the streetscapes and landscapes of Adelaide and Australia. The vibrant seasonal colours generate deep and dark shadows in summer and cool blue skies in winter.

The spontaneous integration of the watercolour gives me inspiration .

As I paint, my thoughts and feelings to the paper, the brush is just an extension of my soul.
